Subject: Saint Charles Caritas update 02-21-2011

Dear Friends of Saint Charles Caritas, Charity on the Border:

Greetings to all! I hope you had a wonderful President's Day weekend!

Rain or shine the Caritas volunteers were on the west patio doing the charity fund raising last Saturday & Sunday! The volunteers were: Diane Martin, all day Sunday & 1 mass on Saturday, Sister Pauline Dibb, Janiley Camarista, MaryJane Delphenich & Nadre Armenta from Birthline, Christine Phillips, Richard Palmer, Bob Piccola, Rictor Armando, Greg Degano, Elvia Valdivieso, Elaine Rechs, Imy Yates and Cecilio & Lolita Salamanca and 12 Nuns from the charities in TJ. Thank you, also to Jack Stroh for buying lunches for the nuns and volunteers and Diane for other snack food for all.

Also thank you for the support of Fr. Nemesio Sungcad pastor and Fr. Arnold Tadena associate pastor for their announcements about the charity. And thank you for the donations and prayers of Deacon Mick & Hilda Dennison and Sister Elizabeth Wekall.

The Costco buy of food for our 6 charities in TJ run by all nuns will be on Feb 26 at 2pm. We need volunteers.

Last Feb. 5, Saturday, Mr. Dan Bridges, who manage one of the biggest whole sale food stores donated 106 frozen turkeys for our charities in TJ. 4 groups of charities came and these turkeys were equally divided to 4 groups. They were Santa Teresita, home for girls, Asilo de Ancianos, home for the elderly, Adoratrices del Santissimo, contemplative nuns and Casa de Encuentro, under Fr. Jaime Lares. We drove all the way to Poway to get these frozen turkeys. We thank so much Mr. Bridges for remembering the charity since I last saw him almost 5 years ago. Please see pictures I took that day. Picture 1: The volunteers unloaded some of the boxes of turkeys and picture 2: Mr. Palmer loading the turkeys at the trunk of the contemplative nuns. Thank you to Mr. Richard Palmer & his son (wanted to remain anonymous) drove his truck all the way Poway.
