

Dear Friends of Saint Charles Caritas:

All things the Caritas do is for God! Thank you Lord Jesus Christ!

Please pray for our friends who have cancers. For their healing: Susan Guenzel, Gary Reyes, Norma Pauline Seibert, Martha Huskey and Paul Bell. Thank you for your continued prayers.

Caritas schedule for October:

A wish list > I would like to announce that Saint Charles Caritas is in need of a small truck to be used to transport bulk foods and toiletries from Costco/99 cents store to room 13 for the bagging of food and toiletries for Jim's Project Homeless Help and for the distribution of these items to parks, outside libraries, streets and poor people living in cars for our homeless brothers and sisters. If possible, if used truck at least 5 years old and in good condition. Caritas can issue a receipt for your tax based on blue book value. If brand new, that will be great too!

October 13, Sunday at 8:30am is the buying of toiletries at the 99 cents store in Chula Vista. If you can volunteer, I thank you and many blessings to you.

October 19, Saturday, buying and bagging of food for Jim's Project #64, Homeless Help. If you have an open truck, please be outside the retreat garage at 9:30am. We buy food at Costco/Palomar. At 12 noon is the bagging of food and toiletries. All volunteers of all ages, please come at 12 noon, room 13. I can issue a community service hours for your schools. Please bring your form (s). Please tell your friends. Thank you.

October 19 & 20, Saturday & Sunday will be the Saint Charles Caritas Day. 100% of your donations is used to buy basic food, toiletries and basic necessities for charities that we are helping. 2 in San Diego, 4 in TJ/Rosarito/Ensenada and 2 to 3 special projects. All the nuns will be outside doors and volunteers on the two 5pm masses.

I asked God to bless these families who helped last month during these two 5pm masses: the Dominguez family (5) and the Matthew family (3) the children are attending the St. Charles Elementary. Thank you good people! Also thank you to our dedicated volunteers during the Saturday & Sunday masses.

October 26, Saturday is the distribution of food and toiletries for Jim's Project # 64, Homeless Help. It will start at 10am outside the retreat garage.

Thank you and God bless you all!

Sincerely,

Merlyn Baker
