 The congregation of the Canossian Sons of Charity from the island of Cagayan de Oro City, Misamis Oriental, Philippines is asking for sports' materials such as basket balls, board games, chess sets, badminton rackets and etc. Sister Babylyn and I met Fr. Jeephy Simbajon when we were in pilgrimage in Italy. We stayed in their mother house convent in Rome. He had his parish and did the daily mass with the Sisters where we stayed. Now, he is assigned as a Formator for Seminarians/philosophy students. The Seminarians do postulate work to children that they just opened last Sunday (as part of the seminarians life for the congregation). Please if you have any sports' materials to donate, let me know. I'll be sending also in a box (18 x 18 x 24 inches) a container of Rosary and Guide How to Pray the Rosary together with the snack bars for the children of 40 and counting.
