Benefactors and Volunteers

Saint Charles Caritas

The reason for this letter is to thank Merlyn Baker, the Benefactors and Volunteers of San Charles Caritas whom the Sisters thanks for their donations, make possible the great support we are receiving food, cleaning supplies, school supplies, for the benefit of the Girls from Casa Hogar Santa Teresita, in Ensenada Baja California Mexico. We currently serve 20 low-income girls in the boarding school who stay all week so they can study at school and on weekends they go out with their relatives, most of them the girls came from broken homes, daughters of single mothers and dysfunctional families, which is why they are in a situation of vulnerability and 30 girls from boarding schools, due to family situations and limited resources, their parents or guardians have to work. They bring the girls in in the morning to school and at noon when they leave school they go to the facilities of the home where they receive the care of both the nuns and the staff, who collaborate. The children eat, do homework, receive training in human - Christian values, play and during the afternoon when the parents leave work. The children sleep at home and the next day they have the same activities.

Thanks to the great support we are receiving every month from Caritas de San Charles for it is possible to continue this beautiful work and support these girls and their families.

May God pay and bless you. Count on our daily prayers for benefactors and volunteers.

Sincerely

Hna. Maria Socorro Tototzintle Muñoz

Prince's Update as of 12/30/2022

Before this year ends, 🙏 We want to greet you a blessed New Year to everyone! We hope that each of us is doing good and safe. As for Prince Yuan Altesin update he has been doing good, he always takes his medicine regularly , does modular in Pintong Gubat Elementary School but they are still in Christmas break. He always attends every Sundays session for the Pray the Rosary in SAMADA half court.

Prince's next follow up check up would be on March 2023. Based on his results and doctors opinion, there is no confirmation yet for his surgery since they add another medicine that may maintain or calm his heart valve. Basically prince is taking 5 medications everyday.

God is indeed amazing since He knows that prince is a little fighter. God is always takes care of him 🙏 .

We, as his family always monitor his food and medications if there are good changes or he still needs to undergo heart surgery. We are also hoping and praying for good results.

Thank you for the milk, blanket, foods, heavenly images, love, care and prayers.

Merry Christmas and Happy New year. May God fill your heart with peace and love. God bless and stay safe.

God bless us all!
